

Dear All,

the PhD students in Economics and Finance warmly invite you to a poster session which will feature their recent work.

You can meet them:

on Tuesday January 24, 2017 from 2.30pm to 4.30pm ,in the LSF Modigliani Miller auditorium.

And

on Thursday January 26, 2017 from 2.30pm to 4.30pm in the hallway (balconies) of CREA on the 2nd and 3rd floor of the BRA department

At this informative event, PhD students will present their current research (or proposals) on posters of their own design.

We especially welcome faculty staff and postdocs so that the students can discuss their work with a varied audience. Your feedbacks are very valuable for us!

The poster titles and presenters are as follows:

Xuecan Cui: "Option pricing close to maturity: small jump behavior of Levy processes".

Gabriele Carmine: "Learning from trees: an early warning system for systemic banking crises."

Ka Kit long: "Population Aging and Endogenous Economic Growth Revisited."

Angela Ortiz-Munoz: "Violins, a new Investment Strategy? The importance of adding missing-data-relevant variables."

Martin Schumann: "Integrated likelihood based inference for nonlinear panel data models with unobserved effects."

Sigita Senulyte: "Euro stability determinants."

Huyen Tran: "Endogenous Urban form and optimal provision of green space."

Fabienne Weber: "Financial Stability in Economies with Jump Shocks."

René Wells: "Choice of Order Size and Price Discovery: The Last Digit Puzzle"

Sotiria Xanalatou: "The predictive success of risk elicitation measures in experimental economics and finance."

This event is free of charge. No registration is required.
Drinks will be available.
