Chères étudiantes, chers étudiants,
Nous nous réjouissons que vous ayez choisi l'Université du Luxembourg pour commencer ou poursuivre vos études ; vous avez opté pour une université jeune et dynamique, au développement de laquelle vous pourrez activement contribuer. Même dans les conditions difficiles de la pandémie Covid-19, nous vous aiderons à compléter votre programme d'études avec succès.

Pour que vous profitiez pleinement de ce contexte, l'Université du Luxembourg se donne une orientation résolument internationale. Celle-ci se traduit premièrement par le multilinguisme : les langues d'enseignement de la plupart des cours sont le français, l'allemand, l'anglais et même le luxembourgeois, et deuxièmement par la coopération avec des universités étrangères, que ce soit dans l'élaboration de programmes d'études ou de conventions de mobilité et enfin, sur les nombreuses nationalités différentes parmi les étudiants et les enseignants.

La délégation étudiante et les nombreuses associations d'étudiants garantissent une écoute et une diversité de la vie étudiante. Nous sommes heureux de pouvoir vous proposer un large spectre d'activités en dehors de vos cours au cours de cette nouvelle année universitaire. Même en période de Covid-19, nous pouvons vous offrir des activités sportives, artistiques et de bien-être sur le campus. Notre Career Center vous soutiendra également tout au long de vos études. Certaines des activités se dérouleront en ligne. La plupart des infrastructures - telles que le centre d'apprentissage du Campus Belval - seront bien sûr ouverts et prêts à vous accueillir.

Nous vous demandons également de respecter le protocole sanitaire afin d'éviter la diffusion du virus. Cette brochure vous donne de nombreux conseils pratiques qui faciliteront votre arrivée à l'Université du Luxembourg.

Au nom de toute l'Université du Luxembourg, nous vous souhaitons la bienvenue et une année académique couronnée de succès !

COVID-19 SAFETY GUIDELINES

The University is committed to make your studying experience as safe as possible for yourself, your fellow students, your professors and the entire University staff.

COVID-19 is a highly infectious disease. It is also your responsibility to help limit the spread of the virus. Please follow all health and safety instructions to protect yourself and others.

GENERAL RULES

› Maintain a minimum distance of 2 metres from others.
› Wash or disinfect your hands frequently.
› Wear a mask, scarf or bandana that covers your nose and mouth. This is mandatory in all buildings, lecture halls and classrooms.
› Greet without shaking hands.
› No more than 10 persons may gather in the same place simultaneously, except for in-person classes.
› Self-monitor by checking your temperature regularly and making sure there are no breathing problems or coughing.
› If you do not feel well or if you show symptoms of COVID-19 (fever, cough, shortness of breath), stay at home and do not come to class or to the University. Do not go to the doctor or to the hospitals’ emergency rooms. Call the doctor with whom you are registered in Luxembourg and follow further instructions.
› Cough or sneeze into your elbow or into a disposable tissue. Dispose of them in a dustbin with a lid.
› Keep track of your social contacts.
IN ALL BUILDINGS, CORRIDORS, LECTURE HALLS AND CLASSROOMS

› Disinfect your hands before entering any classroom.
› Observe social distancing of 2 metres from others.
› Masks are mandatory at all times.
› Please respect the seating plan for your safety.
› Do not move the tables and chairs in classrooms.
› To facilitate social distancing, the University is channeling the flow of persons in the corridors, staircases and elevators. It is mandatory to respect the traffic indications and guidelines.
› Traffic flow in the building entrances may be one way. Please use the proper doors assigned for entering and exiting buildings.
› Some elevators may be reserved for persons with disabilities. In this case please use the stairs to move between floors.
› Traffic flow in the staircases may be one-way. Going up or down between levels may require the use of different staircases. Make sure to locate your way to the exit.

IN THE RESIDENCES

› Please disinfect your hands frequently.
› Please maintain a distance of 2 metres to others. If social distancing cannot be respected, masks are mandatory.
› If possible, stay in the same group to limit risk.
› No more than 10 persons are allowed in shared spaces (kitchen/bathroom/laundry room) simultaneously. If social distancing cannot be respected, the number may be less than 10. Please act responsibly and adapt accordingly.
› Parties and festivities are prohibited.
› Do not invite more than 1 visitor per day.
› Do not share dishes, glasses, cups, kitchen utensils, napkins or bedding with other people. After having used any of these items, wash them carefully with normal detergent and soap.
› Clean and disinfect surfaces frequently and air out your room regularly.

IN UNIVERSITY RESTAURANTS

› Please disinfect your hands before entering a restaurant.
› Masks are mandatory at all times except when seated at a table.
› At the entrance of the restaurant, trolleys are prepared with trays for use. The number of prepared trays corresponds to the number of places available in the restaurant.
› If no more trays are available, guests may purchase take-away meals.
› If you have to wait in line to be admitted to the restaurant, please observe the distancing rules.
WHAT TO DO IF YOU SUSPECT A COVID-19 INFECTION OR HAVE BEEN TESTED POSITIVE

If a COVID-19 infection is suspected or, if you have been tested positively on COVID-19, you should self-isolate yourself immediately for a minimum of 14 days after the onset of symptoms (or upon confirmation to be a suspected case).

Contact with other people must be absolutely avoided.

You should also:

1. Follow the doctor’s instructions (mask and medication);
2. Call 46 66 44 5555 to notify and send an email to healthinfo@uni.lu
3. Strictly follow the sanitary recommendations.

If you live in a student residence, you should also:

4. Stay in your room. Do not use the shared kitchen.
5. Please check with your roommates via social media if someone can go grocery shopping for you and provide you with the essentials. All purchases should be left outside in front of your room, personal contact should be avoided.
6. If you share your bathroom, please clean it thoroughly after each use with normal detergent (shower, washbasin, toilet).

For further details, please see recommendations for Isolation at home for people living under the same roof: msan.gouvernement.lu

GET TESTED FOR COVID-19

Anyone can be an asymptomatic carrier of COVID-19. Protect the community and your loved ones and get tested for COVID-19.

The University invites every student to be tested free of charge. Please check your student mail regularly for invitations for a free COVID-19 test.

Use your personal code and participate in the free testing campaign.

Act responsibly and help break the infection chain.

VIOLATING SAFETY GUIDELINES

Please note that the University’s COVID-19 safety guidelines are mandatory. The violation of rules entails disciplinary sanctions.

We also kindly remind you that individuals must strictly respect the legal quarantine rules. Whoever has been ordered to quarantine by the health authorities must strictly observe the quarantine. The violation of quarantine rules is against the law and will be fined.
On behalf of the University of Luxembourg, I would like to welcome you to our community. You are about to begin an exciting part of your life with us, and everyone at the University will make sure that your experience will be a memorable one.

The University of Luxembourg is a special place. The multilingualism, diversity, commitment to academic excellence, the three campuses, and the location at the heart of Europe, all contribute to the high standards of our academic environment. I encourage you to take full advantage of what the University has to offer.

The start of the academic year 2020-2021 is not without challenges. The current global pandemic has profoundly challenged the way in which we work, teach, and interact with each other. The University strives to achieve the right balance between providing an enriching experience of studies while protecting the health and safety of our students and staff in the ongoing pandemic.

The University has therefore established a blended teaching and learning framework for the winter semester of the current academic year. The blended framework will involve a mixture of remote and in-person teaching. As a rule of thumb, lectures involving larger groups of students will be provided in remote formats (e.g. live streaming, and pre-recorded lectures), whilst teaching of smaller groups of students will be held in face-to-face mode. When possible, the University will strive to provide a number of in-person classes to all first-year students. The format of teaching will account for the size and layouts of classrooms in our campuses and will follow the sanitary advice of the Government throughout the semester.

I would like to emphasize that we are always available to you, and you can get in touch with us at any time. The Student Service (SEVE) will provide you with all the information you need to manage the student life at the University. The University provides high quality psychological support services to our students (student advice and support services). The Luxembourg Learning Centre (llc.uni.lu) on our Belval Campus provides modern learning facilities and workspaces within the limits of the current health and safety regulations.

Again, welcome and have a safe and wonderful experience at the University of Luxembourg!
Dear students,

By choosing the University of Luxembourg, you have opted for a young and dynamic university, where you will be able to actively contribute to its development. You are going to study in an exceptional setting.

Geographically located at the heart of Europe, Luxembourg hosts many European institutions and companies. To fully capitalise on this context, the University of Luxembourg is very internationally oriented.

Firstly through multilingualism: the teaching languages are French, German, English and Luxembourgish and most of the programmes are taught in at least two languages. Secondly, the University has made international cooperation one of its priorities, whether through the development of study programmes or mobility agreements and finally, on the many different nationalities among students and lecturers.

Mobility is an important aspect of studying and is part of your Bachelor programme: each student spends at least one mobility semester abroad. Staying abroad enriches the academic curriculum, but also allows you to improve your language skills and discover other cultures.

The new Luxembourg Learning Center is not only a university library with many different services for students, but also an inspiring place to prepare your courses and exams.

The new student delegation and the numerous student associations ensure that students have a voice and are heard and that the offers in the field of student life are continually broadened.

This guide provides all the information you need about your university and walks you through the administrative formalities. We will give you useful tips to help you settle down in Luxembourg and start successfully in your study programme.

Welcome to the University of Luxembourg!

Diploma recognition

To apply for recognition of your high school diploma or to register your university or higher degree in the title register in Luxembourg, please use the following link: guichet.public.lu/en

Health insurance

Health insurance is compulsory for students studying at the University of Luxembourg.

For EU applicants: To be enrolled permanently at the University of Luxembourg, students must provide an attestation of the affiliation to a medical cover indicating precisely the period of coverage (obligatory mentions of the start date and end date of this insurance). The insurance must cover the duration of the whole semester you are registered at the University of Luxembourg.

If the applicant does not have such insurance, he/she will be asked to pay the fees together with the registration fees directly to the University.

For non-EU applicants: You have to provide an insurance document as soon as you arrive at the University of Luxembourg, otherwise the payment of the health insurance contribution will have to be paid at the same time than the registration fees.

Each student is responsible for declaring any changes to their personal situation during their studies. Any changes must be reported in writing to the SEVE - Admissions Office (change of address, student job, drop-out, etc) without delay.

Procedures to follow in case of an accident

› If an accident occurs on campus, contact the Security and Campus PC’s internal emergency number (+352) 46 66 44 - 5555, regardless the campus you are on.
› Complete the accident report and submit it to Philomène Esposito philomene.esposito@uni.lu or Jean-Baptiste Habourdin jean-baptiste.habourdin@uni.lu at the Student Admissions Office (prestations.aaa@secu.lu).
› After verification and signature, the Student Admissions Office will send the accident report to the Accident Insurance Association (AAA). You will receive an electronic copy.
› We advise you to request your file number directly from the AAA, a few days after the report has been sent to them. You can contact them by phone (+352) 26 19 15 or by mail: prestations.aaa@secu.lu.
› The AAA will then explain the concrete steps you have to take in order to receive a reimbursement of.

Student Email Address

Once your admission is confirmed, you will obtain your student email address in the following form: firstname.lastname.001@student.uni.lu

To connect, you must know your personal identification number (on your student card) and your password, which you will have received on admission. Your IT account is active from 1 August and gives you access to the different platforms of the University. Your IT account is valid for the duration of the current semester and will be extended to the next semester once you have confirmed your re-enrolment and paid your fees.

If you do not continue to the next semester or pay your fees, your IT account will be automatically deactivated the day after the official start of the next semester.

Printing Budget

At the beginning of every semester students receive EUR12.50 on their printing balance. To top up your printing budget online, go to Guichet étudiant

(only payment by Visa or MasterCard are accepted).

Wi-Fi

Wireless networks are available on all campuses. Detailed instructions are available on the IT Helpdesk for Students self-service portal at ITHDS.uni.lu

If you encounter an issue, please visit the IT Helpdesk for Students on your campus.
IT account

What to do if you forget or want to reset your password?

If you experience difficulties connecting or in case you forgot your password, use the following link: passwordreset.uni.lu

As a student at the University of Luxembourg, you can access the following platforms with your IT account:

OWA (owa.uni.lu)

You will obtain your student email address in the following form firstname.lastname.001@student.uni.lu

To change your password, it must comply with the following security policies:

- min. 8 characters
- at least 1 capital letter (A)
- at least 1 small letter (a)
- at least 1 number (1234567890)
- at least 1 symbol ($, @, !, *, etc.)

Guichet Étudiant

The Guichet Étudiant allows you to:

- update your address
- update your personal information
- top up the photocopying/printing credit on your student card (if you want to top up using VPAY, you need to go to the Admissions Office)
- print out your transcripts of grades in French and English
- update your bank account details (for refunds)

Moodle (moodle.uni.lu)

Moodle is a collaborative platform for exchange and interaction between teaching staff and students. It is also used for distributing course materials.

You should sign up for Moodle as soon as you arrive at the University to make sure you never miss out on any news or updates. Moodle helps you manage your studies effectively and gives you the opportunity to take part in discussion forums with other students and teaching staff.

Click on your study programme or on “MyMoodle”. You will be asked to enter your user name and password, which are the same as those that you use to log onto your University account. Once you have logged on, you will be directed to the platform for your programme. Click on the relevant semester to access your course materials.

All courses are protected by a “key”. The faculties allocate a key to each programme for each semester.

Contact: moodle@uni.lu
Intranet (intrastudent.uni.lu)

The student intranet provides information for all students on:
› all the cultural and sports events and activities offered by the University
› job vacancies for students, placements and employment opportunities after graduation
› all the information you need to know to prepare for your mobility semester
› information about rental contracts, procedures and regulations

You can also download useful documents such as the current training agreement and forms for your semester abroad, etc.

Student Card – 3 in 1

Your student card is multifunctional and allows you to:
› get access the examination rooms
› borrow/return books from the library
› pay for your meals in university restaurants

At the end of the semester, a new application for accommodation must be made for the next semester. You can apply online as soon as you are in possession of the student ID assigned to you when you registered online. You will find your student ID in the upper right-hand corner of the registration form.

Assignment policy for UL residences

Access to accommodation in a residence of the University of Luxembourg is open to the following persons:

› Students regularly enrolled full-time in Bachelor and Master programmes (incoming mobility, students from third countries, European students, cross-border students, etc.)
› Regularly enrolled PhDs (self-funded or employed)
› Post-docs newly arrived with a fixed-term contract
› Newly arrived visiting scholars (from a university or other research institution) for a period of maximum 2 years
› Trainees holding a university or LI contract

Evidence of non-compliance with the rules and/or non-payment of the monthly rent and accumulation of debt may also result in loss of eligibility.

During the semester break and if the occupancy rate of the residences allows, rooms can also be allocated to participants of summer courses or special programmes offered through cooperations with companies.

The Office of Student Life is dedicated to helping students experience university life and life in Luxembourg at its fullest. We work together with students to support and develop student activities, promote engagement, inclusion and student participation.

We know when you chose the University of Luxembourg you not only picked a place to study, you were also looking for a great place to live, work and play. At the Office of Student Life we know that university is more than a place to learn, it’s a time for discovery, making new friends, developing new skills.

Whether you are interested in sport, art, dance or well-being, or you would like to set up a student association or have ideas for new initiatives, we are here to listen and to help you discover and develop the opportunities available on campus.

Student Delegation

The Student Delegation plays a central and important role at the University of Luxembourg in representing students. The role of the Student Delegation is to create positive impact and change within the University to benefit our students. The Student Delegation contributes to the quality of campus life for students, community engagement, learning resources as well as ensuring the student’s voice is heard, especially when key decisions are being made by the University that may impact students.

The current Student Delegation is composed of:

- Oleksii Domin (doctoral studies) - President
- Max Bintener (FDEF)
- Lea Neveux (FDEF)
- Sam Bernard (FHSE)
- Sami Bouraoui (FHSE)
- Samuel Braun (FHSE)
- Eric Demarche (FSTM)
- Zainulabedin Lanewala (FSTM)

Your place to ...

... acquire essential skills to highlight your profile

The university curriculum you have chosen will provide you with the qualification to work in specific occupational areas. However, as competition is strong on today’s job market, adding qualifications to your profile will bring you competitive advantages.

This is one of the reasons why the University of Luxembourg decided to launch an Entrepreneurship Programme. The programme gives students across all faculties, regardless of their level of studies (Bachelor and Master students, doctoral candidates, post-docs), the possibility to participate in initiatives that train skills essential to be successful for their future working life.

The University of Luxembourg Incubator offers a broad range of workshops on how to develop your creativity and leadership qualities, work productively in groups, present projects convincingly etc.

... discover entrepreneurship as a career path

Did you ever think about creating your own company or joining a startup to build a business from the ground up? Luxembourg is a great environment to succeed with your own venture – the country offers a dense support infrastructure for entrepreneurs in the heart of Europe.

To allow you getting a good impression of what it takes to run your own business, the Incubator invites entrepreneurs from Luxembourg and abroad to share their story and to provide advice to those who want to follow the same path. Among the Incubator’s guests to guide aspiring entrepreneurs are as well experts for company creation in Luxembourg. During all events, you will have the opportunity to build contacts by this creating step-by-step a valuable career network.
… get support with turning your entrepreneurial vision into reality

You can simply choose to capitalise on the vocational skills acquired in the framework of the Entrepreneurship Programme to make an asset as a so-called “intrapreneur” working for a company after graduation. However, in case you decide to build your own company, the team of the Incubator is there to support you in bringing your business idea to the market.

To be incubated at the University of Luxembourg means having your own offices on Belval and benefitting from a rich infrastructure. You will get access to a wide network of experts that help you take the necessary steps from registering your company in Luxembourg to engaging with customers up to finding funds. Moreover, you are eligible for the Incubator’s mentoring programme that offers tailor-made support to ambitious startups by high-profile experts from the Luxembourgish startup ecosystem and beyond.

Get in touch with the Incubator team and ask for a meeting to discuss your startup project or to be included on the distribution list not to miss any opportunities.

Bachelor students at the University of Luxembourg spend a mandatory mobility semester abroad. The Service in charge of student mobility is the International Relations Office (IRO).

Types of mobility

Erasmus+

Erasmus+ is funded by the European Union and enables students enrolled at the University of Luxembourg to spend a semester abroad at one of the University of Luxembourg’s partner universities within Europe.

The number of Erasmus+ places is limited for each academic year, each study programme and each partner university: unilux.moveon4.de

Global Exchange Programme

The Global Exchange Programme is the University of Luxembourg’s excellence programme that allows students to study for one semester outside of Europe.

The University of Luxembourg has signed student exchange agreements with universities from all over the world:

unilux.moveon4.de

Free Mover

This type of mobility is offered to students who did not obtain a place with the Erasmus+ or Global Exchange Programme. This status enables you to spend a mobility semester at a non-partner university of your study programme. All necessary steps required to submit your application and organise your mobility semester will have to be done by yourself. This requires great autonomy and much motivation.

Selection Process

Compulsory information sessions for Bachelor students will be made available online on 21 October 2020 during the Virtual Study Abroad Day. We recommend to Master students who would like to do a mobility semester to follow these sessions as well.

Find out more: wwww.uni.lu/study_abroad_day
Erasmus+

Bachelor

A call for application is sent out each year in February to apply for the summer or winter semester of the following academic year. You will receive the link to an online application form where you can select up to three partner universities of your choice.

Your course director will select applicants according to academic criteria (number of credits obtained and average grade).

Master

After your course director has validated your mobility project, contact seve.mobility@uni.lu before the end of February to submit your Erasmus+ stay wishes.

Global Exchange Programme

Bachelor and Master

Each year in November, a call for application is sent out for the next academic year. You will receive the link to an online application form where you can select up to three partner universities of your choice.

Places for the Global Exchange Programme are very limited; selection is based on your application file and a personal interview.

Free Mover

No selection takes place. You need to inform the mobility office about your mobility project by the end of April for departures during the winter semester and by the end of October for departures during the summer semester.

Funding

Students can benefit from an Erasmus+ grant or a mobility fund, depending on the type of mobility semester undertaken.

Should you be eligible, you will automatically receive financial aid from the University of Luxembourg, no formal request is needed. Mobility semesters within the proximity including Nancy, Metz, Longwy, Trier, Saarbrücken, Birkenfeldt, Arlon and Libramont are not funded.

The amount of the grant may vary depending on your destination. Financial aid may be combined with a grant from the Centre de documentation et d’information sur l’enseignement supérieur (cedies.public.lu). These requests are not handled by the University of Luxembourg.

Exemption

An exemption from the mobility semester may be granted under certain conditions. Exemptions are not automatically allocated. You will need to submit a formal request to the contact person at your faculty.

The University of Luxembourg, Saarland University, Trier University, the University of Lorraine, the University of Liège and the University of Kaiserslautern form the unique confederation of the University of the Greater Region, which offers students a multitude of advantages.

Attending classes

As a student at the University of Luxembourg, you have the opportunity to enrol in courses for free at the universities in the neighbouring regions and to take exams (conditions may apply). A large number of courses are open to you at the partner universities. UniGR student status also gives you access to language courses under the same conditions that apply to regular students at the partner universities.

Libraries and canteens

You enjoy privileged access to our partner universities’ libraries, canteens and other student services, even if you are not enrolled as a student there.

Mobility fund

If you travel to one of the partner universities to attend a lecture, use research equipment, visit the library or meet a professor, you can request a refund of your travel expenses.

University of Luxembourg Competence Centre (ULCC)

The University of Luxembourg Competence Centre enhances knowledge transmission between the academic and the business world via continuing education and lifelong training. Its mission is to support the economic, social and cultural development as well as full employment. Via partnerships with public and private institutions and regular interactions with the professional world, the ULCC is able to:

› develop high quality certificates and training programmes in collaboration with teachers and researchers of the University of Luxembourg and experts coming from various sectors
› organise MOOCs and large-scale trainings for students of the University of Luxembourg and professionals
› work on projects and studies related to the analysis and the development of competencies and training schemes

The trainings are aimed at private individuals, employees, job seekers and liberal professionals. The ULCC is also open to requests for tailor-made training programmes for companies whose ambition it is to help their employees develop their competencies.

The ULCC builds upon a solid experience in educational engineering and learning design, providing its learners with state-of-the-art quality teaching and access to new technologies and methodologies using modern learning management systems.

The learners and their needs are at the heart of the ULCC’s educational approach: its philosophy is to unlock knowledge and to never stop learning!

The ULCC is particularly present in the following areas:
› Healthcare
› Law
› Finance
› ITC & Computing
› Digital Learning

The ULCC also manages two bachelors addressed mainly to students coming from a BTS course.
A true collaborative and knowledge transfer space, the Luxembourg Learning Centre (LLC) is situated at the heart of the Belval Campus. Open to everyone and spread over five levels and 10,000 m², the LLC offers numerous innovative digital work tools as well as a range of various workspaces. As a student, you can borrow books, access online resources or borrow a laptop. The multilingual paper and digital collections cover all of the disciplines taught at the University of Luxembourg.

All new Bachelor and Master students and doctoral candidates are invited to register at the LLC at the start of the semester to fully benefit from all of our services.

The librarians will be pleased to welcome you and be your partner for success all along your studies. Feel free to contact them for any request, whether for information or assistance in your research via the ‘Book a Librarian’ service.

- For more information: library.uni.lu
- Contact: askalibrarian@uni.lu

In the context of COVID-19, the opening hours of the LLC as well as access to certain spaces of the building may be modified.

Please visit the LLC website library.uni.lu for the latest news on this subject.

During your visit at the LLC, we ask you to respect the sanitary measures in place.
Europe Direct Information Centre

Following its participation in the European Commission call for proposals in 2017, the University of Luxembourg was selected as a partner to run a Europe Direct Information Centre (EDIC) for the period 2018-2020.

The agreement establishing EDIC University of Luxembourg was signed on 28 March 2019 by Prof. Dr Stéphane Pallage, Rector of the University, and Yuriko Backes, Head of the European Commission Representation in Luxembourg.

EDIC University of Luxembourg is geared towards a broad audience, with the aim of informing students, researchers, teachers and the general public about issues related to the European Union’s history and current affairs, as well as reflecting on potential future challenges. It organises a number of lectures, seminars, discussions and exhibitions, and offers a wide range of information about the history of European integration, the EU institutions and the workings and policies of a united Europe. EDIC University of Luxembourg will maximise the potential of its location at the heart of the Greater Region, in one of the EU’s permanent capitals. It is making a major contribution to citizen education, especially among young people, raising awareness about the European Union’s policies and helping develop teaching and research on European integration in Luxembourg.

Based in the Luxembourg Learning Centre (LLC) on Belval Campus, EDIC University of Luxembourg is coordinated by the Luxembourg Centre for Contemporary and Digital History (C²DH) – the University’s third interdisciplinary research centre, which focuses on high-quality research, analysis and public dissemination in the field of contemporary Luxembourgish and European history. EDIC University of Luxembourg is managed by Dr Elena Danescu, a Research Scientist at the C²DH and Joana Da Silva is on hand to answer any queries at the EDIC desk.

Medical care and hospitals

You can find a general practitioner near you: www.medecins-generalistes.lu

Medical houses provide a replacement service for general practitioners for night care, at weekends and on public holidays. They provide an alternative service when medical practices are closed. They are not emergency services.

After midnight and for emergencies you will have to call the emergency number 112.
