

EDUCATION

- University of Luxembourg 2020-2024 (expected)
PhD in Political Science
Dissertation: The politics of moral hazard in Europe's Economic and Monetary Union
Committee members: David Howarth (supervisor), Amandine Crespy, Kenneth Dyson
- College of Europe 2018-2019
MA in European Political and Governance Studies, mention "very good"
Thesis: The political use of the term "moral hazard": evidence from policymakers of the Eurozone
Supervisor: Dermot Hodson
- Paris-Dauphine University 2016-2017
Master's degree in International Economics, mention "good"
- Paris-Dauphine University – Autonomous University of Madrid 2012-2016
Double bachelor's degree in Economics

EMPLOYMENT

- University of Luxembourg September 2020-current position
Doctoral Researcher, Institute of Political Science
- College of Europe, Bruges August 2019-August 2020
Academic Assistant, Department of European Political and Governance Studies
- Embassy of the Argentine Republic, Brussels February 2018-August 2018
Assistant Economist, Economic and Commercial Section
- France Stratégie – Prime Minister's Office, Paris September 2016-September 2017
Junior Analyst, Economics Department (apprenticeship)

PUBLICATIONS

- "The political use of the term "moral hazard": evidence from policymakers of the Eurozone", Bruges Political Research Papers, 2019, N° 78.
- "The evolution of Central Banking in Europe" (with Michele Chang and Gabriel Glöckler) in Olivier Costa and Steven Van Hecke (eds) Is Europe back in the driver's seat? The Union at a turning point in time (work in progress)

TEACHING

- College of Europe, teaching assistant
The political economy of European integration – Prof. Michele Chang (tutorials) Winter 2019
Politics and policies of the EU – Prof. Olivier Costa (discussion groups) Winter 2019
Research seminars – Prof. Dermot Hodson and Prof. Martin Westlake Summer 2020
(assistance with MA theses supervision)

GRANTS

- Dauphine Foundation Scholarship 2014-2015

LANGUAGES AND COMPUTER SKILLS

- French (native), Spanish (native), English (fluent)
Microsoft Office (Word, PowerPoint, Excel), Stata, R