

What gives you hope for 2021?

Our creativity and imagination enable us to create magic and probably a better future.

Alla Gubenko, doctoral candidate in the Department of Education and Social Work

Little pleasures that make all the difference.

Hala Alami,
Master student -
Science in Physics

I want to hug, kiss and shake hands again. In 2021, I want to be human again.

Aswin Lutchanah,
Social Media Manager

The year 2021 is a gift to do what we like as best as we can.

Prof. Dr Antonella Perucca,
Associate Professor in Mathematics and its Didactics

Smiling eyes; open ears; mindful words.

Tania Curziotti, Master student - Management und Coaching im Bildungs- und Sozialwesen

Denis Villeneuve's
DUNE movie.

Benjamin Ledran, Study and Programme Administrator,
Doctoral School in Economics and Finance

A tiny gesture, a smile, a kind word, a picture, a listening ear received or the feeling to make a small difference in somebody else's life has the potential to turn a life around.

Stephanie Anderson,
Senior International Relations Officer

Science; the flash of a smile; the sound of music that people share; the photography of Marc Riboud and Ragnar Axelsson; the poetry of Dylan.

Jean-Paul Hoffmann,
Head of Communications

Humanity is what we need most in a pandemic. We need to look after ourselves first and foremost and motivate others to do the same - as well as maintain or build close bonds, help vulnerable, old or sick people; that is what makes me feel better and what gives me hope that together we can make it through.

Alexandra Seeger, Bachelor student - Science in Psychology

New challenges, young people who are engaged for a better world and passionate teachers give me hope for 2021.

Lisa Pinto, Master student - Finance and Economics

Tomorrow.

Catherine Gitzinger,
Master student - Secondary Education - Lëtzebuergesch

Season's greetings

happy holidays and best wishes for a prosperous and creative new year

2021
