

On Wednesday 16 October, the PhD students in Economics and Finance warmly invite you to a poster session which will feature their recent work. At this informative event, PhD students will present their current research (or proposals) on posters of their own design. Posters will be on display in CREA (room BRC 2.01) from 2.30 pm to 5.00 pm and poster authors will be present in person to explain their research and answer questions. Come to meet the PhD students and see what their research is all about!

The poster titles and presenters are as follows:

- Claire Oceane Chevallier: Macroeconomic fluctuations and financial frictions
Marco Delogu: The Dynamics Implications of Liberalizing Cross Border Migration
Sarah El Joueidi: Market size and the location of financial markets
Yutao Han: Who benefits from partial tax coordination?
Yuehao Lin: Stein's Overreaction Hypothesis: Option Anomaly or Perfectly Rational Behavior?
Dimitrios Mavridis: Rational Learning about Rare Productivity Busts and Endogenous Public-Consumption Spending
Dimitra Michala: Forecasting Distress in European SMEs
Erica Perego: Sovereign debt and monetary policy in a currency union
Magdalena Pisa: Ripple effects from industry defaults
Gudrun Rolle: Corporate Governance and Idiosyncratic Skewness
Xi Wan: Emission license auctions with private victim marginal disutility

Event is free of charge.
No registration is required.
