Studying at the University of Luxembourg means…

Being multilingual
The University of Luxembourg is a multilingual university. Most of our programmes are bilingual (French-English or French-German), even bilingual or taught entirely in English.

Having an open mind
We strongly encourage student mobility and all our Bachelor students must spend one semester abroad. The University of Luxembourg is an active partner in the European ERASMUS+ Programme and has signed a series of agreements with partner universities all over the world. Language skills and a willingness to be open-minded are rewarded by degree qualifications which give our students undisputed advantages in the global labour market.

Being well-connected in the world of work
As a student, you will be able to take advantage of the excellent links to the financial centre, employers, industry and public institutions in Luxembourg. Over 860 lecturers from the business world, the social and education sector and national and European institutions teach in our three faculties.

Having a unique university experience
The University of Luxembourg operates on a human scale. Few students are the top priority. Much of our teaching takes place in small classes or seminars. You will receive personal supervision and individual mentoring. Our students are encouraged to take an active part in lectures, classroom debates and discussions.

Welcome and support services
SEVE, the Student Department, provides services to offer you support and advice throughout your time at the university.

Student accommodation
The majority of the University of Luxembourg's student housing is located in the southern region near Belval Campus. Additional halls of residence are located around Luxembourg City. Currently, the university has a total of 1,122 rooms and studio apartments available in 37 halls of residence.

Language Centre
The University of Luxembourg offers language courses in French, German, English and Luxembourgish for students and staff in cooperation with the “Institut National des Langues.”

Sports, arts and culture
Art workshops, as well as a large range of sports, activities, are organised free of charge by the University’s Department of Sports, the University Choir, the University Chamber Music Ensemble, the student theatre group EduDrame, the dance group Dance Cluster and a mime workshop. Language Centre coordinates various cultural activities, including art workshops, as well as a large range of sports, activities, are organised free of charge.

Life on Campus
At the University of Luxembourg, several student associations represent the interests of the student community. The student unions is the place to meet, hang out and participate in a variety of activities. At the beginning of each academic year, the University organises the Welcome Day to help new students to get to know each other, their university and their city.
