

The Faculty of Law Economics and Finance, together with the Faculty of Language and Literature, Humanities, Arts and Education are delighted to invite you to the :

“Opening of the Robert Schuman Institute of European Affairs, the University of Luxembourg’s Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence.”

Abstract

The University of Luxembourg is proud to celebrate the opening of the Robert Schuman Institute of European Affairs, funded by the European Commission as a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence.

The institute will focus on the interdisciplinary study of European affairs and the European Union.

To mark the official inauguration of the new inter-faculty Robert Schuman Institute of European Affairs, the President of the Court of Justice of the European Union, Professor Koen Lenaerts, will speak on “the Court of Justice in a changing world”.

The President of the University of Luxembourg, Professor Rainer Klump, the Deans of the two faculties and the directors of the institute will briefly introduce the institute, its mission, its research and its fellows-programme.
